Are frequent these days here? It would be a reasonable and logical question to ask if it were not for the fact that a person could get a glass of beer at the Criterion.

SUN SHONE FOR THE MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Clouds Clear for Instant While Rite Joins Young People at St. Elizabeth's.

A very interesting wedding took place at five o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. Elizabeth's chapel, when the Rev. Mr. Foran performed the marriage rite which joined Miss Clara Brown and Irving W. Fish.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Edna Brown of Berkeley, California, arrived last Thursday on the Kona. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lathrop L. Fish, the mother of the groom, and the two were met here by Mr. Fish, who is a young business man of Kona.

The wedding was a simple one witnessed by but a few intimate friends. Mr. Fish, the groom's mother, gave the bride away. The ceremony was presided over by the Rev. Mr. Foran, who is the pastor of the church.

The young couple will make their home for the present in Honolulu, where a cottage has been fitted up for them. After enjoying a few weeks in Hawaii, Mr. Fish, the groom, will return to his home in Berkeley, California.

True, it is somewhat out-of-the-ordinary, but that is in its favor, rather than the reverse. And Ivory Soap is very much more useful than cut-glass, silver and things of that sort.
